A Letter from Father Sheldon

My dear Parish Family,

Greetings!

This weekend, the Catholic Church worldwide celebrates World day for grandparents and the elderly. This was established by the Holy Father Pope Francis last year to be celebrated annually every Fourth Sunday of July. He chose this weekend that is close to the Feast of Sts. Anne and Joachim, the grandparents of Jesus.

This is a great opportunity for us to show our gratitude to our grandparents and elderly relatives for the many things they have handed on to us including our faith. I am sure they have taught us to know the important values in life. They have taught us to love God and His Church. Many of us were taught by our grandparents how to pray "Angel of God"; "Grace before meal" and many other basic prayers.

I hope we can also find time to visit those who are homebound. If possible let us bring them to church. Let them feel we have not forgotten them. They are still part of our family, our parish, our community. Many of them may have slowed down but they are the ones who continue to pray for us, which is still our powerful source of strength in our journey. We still need them and we are grateful.

In connection with this celebration, Bishop O'Connell called on all parishes in the Diocese of Trenton to take up a collection for retired and infirmed priests this Sunday. Let us show our gratitude and generosity to them.

God bless you!

Fr. Sheldon
